

Course Objective

The Advanced Engineering Training course sets out to answer the needs of experienced truss engineers who have already mastered the content of the Intermediate Engineering Training course and wish to reinforce and deepen this knowledge.

To ensure sufficient depth of understanding can be achieved, the course covers a core set of subjects: Loads, Snow, Plating and Remedial. The course includes many practical worked examples and tutorial sessions.

Held at our head office in Aldershot, the course runs for two days.